

WAR ON GROW OPS CONFERENCE

BANFF CENTER
BANFF, ALBERTA
MARCH 27-29 , 2012

THE CITY OF CALGARY
Building Regulations

Alberta Specialized Law Enforcement Training (ASLET) in conjunction with the Calgary Police Service and the City of Calgary - Building Regulations are hosting a three day War on Grow Ops Conference in Banff, Alberta. The Training is open to all law enforcement, government and related private sector members. Seating is limited and interested members are encouraged to register early. There is a fee of $350 to attend the training which includes health breaks and 2 breakfasts, 3 lunches, and a banquet. Candidates are responsible for arranging their own accommodation, incidentals and travel. ($325 prior to Jan. 1/ 2012)

This conference will educate and inform all partners and municipal/provincial agencies on the life cycle of marihuana grow operations (MGO's) from the enforcement through to remediation. It will provide a forum to showcase the collaborative approach that has been developed and adopted to investigate, eradicate, and remediate a property so that it can be safely occupied and no longer a liability to our communities.

Dress code is business casual (no jeans).

Agenda:

- Best Coalition Practices in Stopping MGO's—Diane Colley-Urquhart (Chair Calgary Coalition)
- Shared Responsibility in Community Issues — Calgary Police Chief Rick Hanson
- Manager Development and Building Approvals, City of Calgary—Kevin Griffiths
- Coordinated Safety Response Teams History and Future - City of Calgary, Mr. Wayne Brown
- Toronto MGO Experience - Mr. Mark Sraga
- MGO's and their Effect on Indoor Air Quality - Professor Tang Lee, University of Calgary
- Current Trends in Alberta - Sgt. Darren Berglind (ALERT Green Team South) & Sgt. Ray Savage (ALERT Green Team North)
- Electrical Utility Supplier Concerns - Murray McGonigle, Enmax
- Legislative Authority in Enforcing Remediation - Chief Building Inspector Marco Civatarese
- Fires in Vacant Buildings – Cincinnati Fire - Deputy Chief (retired) Ben Klaene
- Health and Safety Risks associated with Grow Ops - Alberta Health Services Vicki Wearmouth
- MGO Investigative Challenges—S/Sgt. Tom Hanson (ALERT South)

As this conference is being offered to law enforcement, government, and some private sector organizations, ALERT reserves the right to deny access to all applications to attend/sponsor/or present for suitability.
